

Randal William Dutro

January 27, 2019

Randal William Dutro, 61, made his final departure from Earth to our Lord in Heaven on January 27, 2019.

He was born a native of Florida in 1957 to Don and Louise Dutro. Later on they would make Indiana his home. He enjoyed all things American. He loved his family, football and of course, the Lord. He lived in faith and he died in faith. Randy is survived by his devoted wife of 28 years Julie Dutro (nee Blanton), their 3 children; Craig Dutro, Sierra Dutro (Nikko Aldana) and Noah Dutro, one grand dog Nugget Dutro, two brothers; Alwin and Greg, three sisters; Lavon, Ester, and Lindy and an over abundance of family and friends that will miss Randy dearly. He was a one of a kind soul with a fire for God so it's only natural to leave on one last prayer for Randy.

“ In your hands O Lord we humbly entrust our brother in this life. You embraced him with your tender love. Deliver him now from every evil and bid him eternal rest. The old order has passed away. Welcome him into paradise where there will be no sorrow, no weeping, or pain but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.”

Everyone who knew Randy is more than welcome to come and celebrate his life with his family. Randy's Memorial Visitation will take place on Sunday, Feb. 10, 2019 from 12:00pm to 2:00pm at Calumet Park Funeral Chapel and Crematory, 370 N. County Line Road., Hobart, IN 46342. “ We went on a road trip to Fort Lauderdale during Spring break. There were 4 of us in that small little blue truck of Randy's. We would take turns driving and sunbathing. We got sun by laying in the back of the truck. Had a good tan before reaching Fort Lauderdale. It was a very fun trip. Talking with people, swimming in the gulf, just enjoying life. Everything went really well until on the way back home. We were in Tampa when Jimmy decided to go to the strip club. I was woke up with Randy yelling at Jimmy because he got a ticket on Randy's truck. Randy had to deal with the ticket but he still said it was an awesome trip.

“ There's a million different stories I could say about my dad. He wasn't always nice and caring or even understanding. But he never once failed me at being a father. He was rather rough on all of us growing up. But my dad was always a dad. And as I got older I got a much better relationship with him that I will be forever grateful for. I wish I had got it longer and I'll always wish for more time. But we could of died days apart and I'd still wish for more time. My dad was one of my favorite people alive. He supported me, stood up for me, annoyed me lol, cared for me, showed me how to be strong and how to have a backbone. There will never be a moment without him that

I'll ever feel whole again. Thank you for all the time I did get with you dad. Our energy will be together again someday. I'm glad you finally got what you wanted. Tell everyone we have lost that you're with now I love them. See you someday on the other side daddy.

“ When I was a single mom of 2 boys I had 2 jobs and walked to both. One very cold, icy snowy morning I was dreading the walk. When a cab drove up, the driver said someone has paid him to drive me to work. Later I found out it was Randy. Both Randy and Julie have helped us more than they knew. He had a big heart, he will be missed.

“ Randy was my little brother and I loved my blonde hair blue eyed brother. There were times when I was a mean big sister. Randy as a kid could be persistent. He grew up into a persistent man. I guess that is how he was able to put up with all of us for all these years. I'm sure it was his persistence that helped him to go to work at the same place to earn a living for so many years, (even with their point system). He went through heart break and disappointments and then he found the love of his life who became his wife and the mother of his children. I believe that when GOD creates us it's for HIS purpose. We get a glimpse here on earth of what truly our purpose is while we are here. I also believe that when Heaven needs us, we go home. I know Randy is in Heaven. I can almost hear Randy declaring the KING. I see him on the street corner standing on a street of gold shouting out praises of JESUS and telling everyone of GOD's great love for mankind and families. Or maybe he's in the Temple with JESUS singing praises to the GODHEAD. JESUS and family were Randy's priorities and he stood for JESUS while he walked these streets. Randy was not perfect, he never claimed to be, but he did claim he knew who was.

“ I remember when I was a kid you would tease me about my birthday and only give me a gift on my actual birthday (2/29). It was always a great treat. Even when I got older it was a joke between us. I will miss you. Love, Louise
